The Arms into Art activity is part of the implementation of the Republic of Montenegro Strategy to Control SALW. The Arms into Art initiative is an excellent example of joint effort and cooperation between government, civil society and UNDP to promote public awareness regarding the risks and negative impacts of the illegal proliferation of SALW, and to mobilize public support to prevent and reduce illicit Small Arms and Light Weapons (SALW) availability and misuse.

During the Arms for Art week in November 2004, artists from Balkan Countries, with weapons decommissioned by MUP, built unique sculpture – symbol of peace with financial support of UNDP and Pax Christy Netherlands.

The event will be opened by the Minister of Interior – Mr. Dragana Djurovic and by the Head of UNDP Office in Podgorica - Mr. Garret Tankosic Kelly.

For the occasion of the launch of sculpture Bird of Peace – UNDP and Ministry of Interior will host cocktail in caffe Stari Sat.
