

Ministry of Justice of Montenegro
Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE)
United Nations Development Programme (UNDP)

Joint Media Advisory

The Ministry of Justice of Montenegro, in cooperation with the OSCE and the UNDP continues with the public debate on Draft Criminal Procedure Code

What: The Ministry of Justice of Montenegro, in cooperation with the OSCE and the UNDP organizes a roundtable on Draft Criminal Procedure Code.

Introductory remarks will be given by:

Mr. Miraš Radović, Minister of Justice of Montenegro
Mr. Waldemar Figaj, Deputy Head of the OSCE Mission Montenegro
Mr. Mirsad Bibović, UNDP Institutional and Judicial Cluster Leader, Montenegro

* * *

Participants of the Roundtable will work on improvements for the solutions proposed in the Draft Criminal Procedure Code.

The roundtable is organized as a public debate encompassing Montenegrin municipalities of Podgorica, Nikšić and Cetinje. It is expected that participants will be the highest judicial officers, courts and Prosecutor's Office public servants, lawyers, representatives of international development and non-governmental organizations and others who would be interested in this subject. The OSCE and UNDP experts gave their review of the Draft Code.

When: Monday, 21 April, 11:00 a.m.

Where: Human Resource Agency, Jovana Tomaševića bb, Podgorica

Contact person:

Ms. Jelena Đonović, UNDP Judiciary Reform Project Coordinator

Tel.: + 382 20 407 519, + 382 68 688 851, e-mail: jelena.djonovic@undp.org