The results of the research “Capacity and Integrity Assessment of the Local Self Governance in Montenegro” will be presented by:

Ms Slavica Nikolić, Research Coordinator, Center for Economic Development and Entrepreneurship (CEED)

When: Tuesday, 2 June 2009 at 11 a.m.

Where: Center for Economic Development and Entrepreneurship, Kralja Nikole 27a/4, Business Center Čelebić

The aim of UNDP-s Project for Fight Against Corruption is to contribute to the efficient implementation of the anticorruption initiatives, and in that way to advance democratic governance in Montenegro, in partnership with the Directorate for Anticorruption Initiative of the Government of Montenegro, local non-governmental organizations and business sector, as well as to raise public awareness and strengthen the capacities of civil society organizations to participate in the implementation of the national anticorruption policies.

Another segment of this project is research on corruption. The aim of the research is examining the roots of corruption, its main manifestations and expenditures, as well as providing concrete information and statistical data for the needs of the Governemnt of Montenegro. Those data serve as basic indicators for the future strategic planning of responses of the public administration and for updating the National Action Plan for Fight against Corruption.
