Strengthening Capacities of Judiciary to Fight Corruption and Organised Crime

Recognising the fact that coordinated fight against corruption and organised crime is essential for enhancing accountability of the judiciary and for increasing long-term public confidence in the state's ability to enforce law, in January 2008 UNDP launched the project "Strengthening Capacities of Judiciary to Fight Corruption and Organised Crime", consisting of three components: 1) Support to the Ministry of Justice in its legislative efforts; 2) Developing training programmes for the Judicial Training Center (JTC); 3) Developing IT capacities for the judiciary.
